

Glaxo Wellcome is now continuing to work with the Cochrane Collaboration on a number of related issues

- Ability to publish “boring” results
 - new electronic journals

- Ensuring relevant information for systematic review included in published papers
 - randomisation/blinding
 - means \pm SD

- Retrospective further information on published studies
 - draft process established for Airways Group
 - streamlining and prioritising requests via editorial group
 - huge workload and logistical issues